

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2016 Aviation Law and Insurance Symposium Speaker and Topic Announcement

*Ms. Dorothea Capone, Esq., Baumeister & Samuels, P.C., New York, NY
Accepts Speaking Opportunity at 2016 Embry-Riddle Aviation Law and Insurance Symposium*

Speaker: Ms. Dorothea Capone, Esq.

Firm: Baumeister & Samuels, P.C.

Topic: "Who's Flying the Aircraft? The Pilot, Air Traffic Control or a Cyber-Terrorist?"

Summary: Ms. Capone will discuss recent issues involving penetration and manipulation of aircraft cockpits from the passenger compartment, and what's being done by the FAA and carriers to ward off this and other cyber attacks from taking control of an aircraft.

Register Now

Biography - Ms. Capone, a member of the Baumeister & Samuels, P.C. law firm, has been part of the firm since its inception and has worked with Mr. Mitch Baumeister for 35 years. She has been involved in every major case handled by the firm, including Continental Connection Flight 3407, Comair Flight 5191, the World Trade Center September 11th Litigation, and the Pan Am Flight 103 Libya terrorist litigation.

Ms. Capone represented the families of more than 50 individuals who lost their lives in the September 11, 2001 terror attacks in hearings before the Special Master for the federal Victims Compensation Fund, a legislative alternative to litigation, and has extensive experience interacting with and assisting family members involved in a catastrophic disaster, working closely with each of the firm's clients.

Ms. Capone was recently elected Secretary and Diversity Officer for the Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section ("TIPS") of the American Bar Association for the 2015-2017 term.

RESERVE YOUR SPONSORSHIP